Conference Presenter,

Thank you for your recent presentation given at the 2006 BDPA Technology Conference in Los Angeles, California. We do understand that your time is valuable and we sincerely appreciate you sharing your knowledge with the BDPA conference attendees.

Membership feedback regarding the expertise of presenters and the quality of the workshops offered during this conference has been very positive. These results are possible thanks to you and your support of the BDPA commitment to excellence.

Please accept the enclosed gift as a token of our appreciation to you for your contribution and as a reminder of a job well done.

We welcome your contributions to the 2007 BDPA Technology Conference in Washington, DC through the call for papers, which will be available on our website shortly at www.bdpa.org. The conference dates for 2007 will be August 15 through August 18. Please visit the website during the October timeframe for a list of suggested topics that will benefit our membership in 2007. Also, feel free to submit a proposal for any innovative or emerging topics that will keep our membership on the leading edge.

Thank you again and we look forward to your continued participation with BDPA and to seeing you in Washington, DC. Please provide any suggestions for a more rewarding experience of conference presenters or any additional feedback to conference@bdpa.org.

Sincerely,
